Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The people of the state of South Dakota have been fortunate to receive the labors of a special individual devoted to making our state respected in the transportation field; and,

Whereas, Carole Binger has given over 25 years of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota including over 19 years with the Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, During her career with the Department of Transportation, Carole has given exemplary performance as a Right-of-Way Technician processing acquisition folders and vouchers, keeping meticulous records and answering questions about mortgage releases, acquisition status, and landowner inquiries; and,

Whereas, Carole has served the people of this great state well by devoting the majority of her working life to their mobility and safety. Her professionalism has set high standards for all employees of the Department with her honesty and loyalty; and,

Whereas, Carole plans to spend her retirement traveling with her husband, Larry, visiting family and grandchildren; and,

Whereas, On July 23, 2012, Carole will retire from the Department of Transportation with over 25 years of service; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
